Dataflex International BV and all its subsidiaries (hereafter referred to as 'Dataflex') hereby declare that all their products conform to the requirements of the REACH Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006, including all current amendments up to and including those of 2025, as well as the RoHS Directive 2011/65/EU, including Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863 and subsequent relevant updates applicable in 2025.

REACH Regulation

None of the substances or compounds as defined under REACH, including those listed on the ECHA Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) as last updated in January 2025, are present in Dataflex products at concentrations above 0.1% weight by weight (w/w).

In accordance with Article 7 of the REACH regulation, Dataflex is not currently required to perform any substance registration, notification, or provide additional information.

RoHS Directive

Dataflex confirms that none of the restricted substances listed in Annex II of the RoHS Directive (Directive 2011/65/EU, as amended by Directive (EU) 2015/863 and applicable 2025 updates) are present in concentrations exceeding the allowed limits of 0.1% (or 0.01% for cadmium) in any of its products.
